Call for Abstracts Virtual Training Days February 7 - 10, 2022

As we continue navigating this unpredictable world around us, RMOUG is determined to continue our tradition of excellence with our Training Days 2022 Virtual conference. With your help we can offer our community of DBAs, Developers, Architects, Analysts, Security Specialists, Data Scientists, and others an incredible variety of technical and functional sessions and workshops.

The agenda for Training Days 2022 has opportunities for has opportunities for 60-minute technical sessions, 30-minute Quick Tips, 2-hour Deep Dives, and 2-hour Hands-On Workshops. We are looking forward to reviewing abstracts that present both cutting edge and functional topics for all skill levels. Training Days 2022 "Call for Abstracts" has officially opened.

The deadline to submit your abstract is September 23, 2021.

Just follow this link and submit your abstract/s today:
